

Tiefling

The unimaginable offspring of Humans and Fiends, Tieflings are born with otherworldly physical and mental traits not otherwise seen on Pliara. Tieflings first began to appear throughout Pliara less than a year after Deltro's Demonic War of 1382. Captive Humans began giving birth to wild, mostly humanoid figures, each reflective in some way of the fiend that they are descended from. Although every Tiefling feels the bloodlust and desire for power within their blood, each is capable of their own level of free will. Despite inner, deep-set desires, the descendent of a succubus can grow to become a holy warrior, for example. Due to their fiendish appearance and general lack of trust from other races, Tieflings are mostly found outside of other civilizations. Many Tieflings follow a life of adventuring as an escape from the persecution of being a fiend spawn.

One of the most aesthetically diverse of all Pliaran races, no two Tieflings will ever share the same appearance. Not only does a Tiefling often share the diverse facial bone structures of their Human lineage, but each trait of fiendish heritage presents itself in a wide variety of ways. One Tiefling may develop a long, barbed tail and a mouth full of fangs while their sibling manifests wings and yellow eyes. Some Tieflings may even present as almost entirely Human, with only minor distinctions.

Racial Traits

Ability Scores. Your Charisma score increases by 2, and your Intelligence score increases by 1.

Age. Tieflings mature at the same rate as humans but live a few years longer.

Alignment. Tieflings might not have an innate tendency toward evil, but many of them end up there. Evil or not, an independent nature inclines many tieflings toward a chaotic alignment.

Size. Tieflings are about the same size and build as humans. Your size is Medium.

Speed. Your base walking speed is 30 feet.

Darkvision. Thanks to your infernal heritage, you have superior vision in dark and dim conditions. You can see in dim light within 60 feet of you as if it were bright light, and in darkness as if it were dim light. You can't discern color in darkness, only shades of gray.

Languages. You can speak, read and write Common and Infernal.

Diverse Hellish Heritage. Because no two fiendish bloodlines manifest in the same way, your Tiefling's heritage is modular rather than fixed. While all Tieflings share a common Pliaran base, the physical traits, magical affinities, and unnatural resilience passed down from your fiendish ancestor are unique to you.

When creating a Tiefling character, you receive a core set of base statistics shared by all of your kin. You then receive 3 Fiendish Points (FP) to spend on custom features, allowing you to tailor your physical mutations, combat defenses, and innate powers to match your character's distinct lineage.

Cosmetic Traits (0 Points) - Choose up to two:

- Horns: Vestigial, massive, swept-back, etc.
- Skin/Eyes: Red, blue, purple, human tones, solid color eyes, or cat-like pupils.
- Short/Vestigial Tail: Non-functional tail that cannot hold items or strike.
- Hooves / Fangs / Minor Spines: Decorative, non-combat features.

Major Traits (2 Points Each)

- Bat / Fiendish Wings: You have a flying speed of 30 feet. To use this speed, you cannot be wearing medium or heavy armor.
- Fiendish Magic: You know one 1st-level spell from the Fiend Warlock or Sorcerer list (e.g., Hellish Rebuke, Burning Hands, Disguise Self). You can cast it once per long rest without a spell slot, or using any spell slots you have.
- Spined Defense: Whenever a creature hits you with a melee attack while within 5 feet of you, you can use your reaction to deal 1d6 piercing damage to the attacker.

Minor Traits (1 Point Each)

- Prehensile Tail: Your tail is long and flexible. You can hold and manipulate objects weighing up to 5 lbs, draw or stow an item, or open unlocked doors with it. It cannot wield weapons or shields.
- Barbed Tail / Claws: You possess natural weapons. Unarmed strikes deal 1d4 piercing or slashing damage instead of bludgeoning.
- Hellish Resistance: You have resistance to Cold, Fire, Poison, or Acid damage.
- Noxious Odor: As a bonus action, you emit a foul sulfurous stench. Each creature within 5 feet of you must succeed on a Constitution saving throw DC (8 + your Proficiency Bonus + your Constitution modifier) or take 1d4 poison damage and have disadvantage on the next attack roll it makes before the start of your next turn. You can use this a number of times equal to your Proficiency Bonus per long rest.
- Fiendish Resilience: You gain resistance to cold weather environments and advantage on saving throws against disease and non-magical toxins.
- Fiendish Skill: You gain proficiency in one of the following skills: Deception, Intimidation, Persuasion, or Stealth.
- Hellish Legacy (Utility): You learn one cantrip of your choice from the Sorcerer or Warlock spell list. Charisma is your spellcasting ability.
