Level 1 - Bonus Proficiencies

When you choose this domain at 1st level, you gain proficiency in two of the following skills: Arcana, History, Investigation, or Nature. You also learn two languages of your choice. Finally, you have advantage on Intelligence checks related to recalling information, recognizing patterns, or remembering details.

Level 1 - Analytical Mind

Your memory and knowledge allow you to wield divine power with precision. You can use Intelligence instead of Wisdom for your cleric spellcasting ability and for attack rolls. Additionally, when a creature you can see within 30 feet makes an attack roll, ability check, or saving throw, you can use your reaction to grant a bonus to the roll equal to 1d4. You can use this reaction a number of times equal to half your cleric level (rounded down), minimum 1, per long rest.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: Exploit Logic

You can use your Channel Divinity to manipulate enemies and outcomes through divine insight. As an action, choose one of the following effects:

- Predictive Strike. A creature of your choice within 30 feet must succeed on an Intelligence saving throw or have its next turn disrupted. On its next turn, it can't move more than half its speed, can't take a bonus action. The creature must use its action to make a melee weapon attack, which is made at disadvantage, or take 1d4 psychic damage.
- Analytical Advantage. Choose one creature you can see within 30 feet. You and one creature of your choice have advantage on attack rolls against that creature until the start of your next turn.
- Divine Insight. Choose one object, place, or landmark that you are aware of and roll a d100. If any information or lore about the subject exists, you learn various pieces of information determined by the result. You can use this feature once per short or long rest, but you cannot use it on the same subject more than once every 7 days.

1-20	You learn nothing new.
21-40	You learn information that could easily be found in textbooks or the public.
41-60	You learn information that would normally take a few weeks of research between different sources.
61-80	You divine a new piece of information that would have required an insightful mind piecing together relevant facts from long lost sources.
81-99	You divine a new piece of information that would have required an insightful mind piecing together relevant facts from long lost sources.
100	You learn a secret about the subject that nobody else has ever been able to determine, perhaps even the gods themselves.

Level 6 - Mind over Matter

You can use Intelligence instead of Wisdom on all Wisdom saving throws. Additionally, when using your Analytical Mind, you may choose to use half your Cleric level (rounded down) as the bonus instead of 1d4.

Level 8 - Potent Spellcasting

You add your Intelligence modifier to the damage of all your Cleric cantrips.

Level 17 - Predictable Patterns

Your intellect allows you to predict outcomes and act with unparalleled precision. Using your reaction, you or an ally within 30 feet can reroll an attack roll, ability check, or saving throw, choosing the better result. You may use this ability a number of times equal to your cleric level divided by 2, rounded down (minimum 1) per long rest. Additionally, you and creatures of your choice within 30 feet of you have advantage on initiative rolls.

LIFE DOMAIN

Eiravel

Level 1 - Bonus Proficiencies

When you choose this domain at 1st level, you gain proficiency with heavy armor.

Level 1 - Disciple of Life

Also starting at 1st level, your healing spells are more effective. Whenever you use a spell of 1st level or higher to restore hit points to a creature, the creature regains additional hit points equal to 2 + the spell's level.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: Preserve Life

Starting at 2nd level, you can use your Channel Divinity to heal the badly injured.

As an action, you present your holy symbol and evoke healing energy that can restore a number of hit points equal to five times your cleric level. Choose any creatures within 30 feet of you, and divide those hit points among them. This feature can restore a creature to no more than half of its hit point maximum. You can't use this feature on an undead or a construct.

Level 6 - Blessed Healer

Beginning at 6th level, the healing spells you cast on others heal you as well. When you cast a spell of 1st level or higher that restores hit points to a creature other than you, you regain hit points equal to 2 + the spell's level.

Level 8 - Divine Strike

At 8th level, you gain the ability to infuse your weapon strikes with divine energy. Once on each of your turns when you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can cause the attack to deal an extra 1d8 radiant damage to the target. When you reach 14th level, the extra damage increases to 2d8

Level 17 - Supreme Healing

Starting at 17th level, when you would normally roll one or more dice to restore hit points with a spell, you instead use the highest number possible for each die. For example, instead of restoring 2d6 hit points to a creature, you restore 12.

Lunar Domain

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

Clerics of the Lunar Domain draw power from the moon: an ever-shifting force of change, reflection, and subtle influence. Unlike the constant radiance of the sun, lunar energy waxes and wanes, guiding those attuned to its cycles. Lunar clerics manipulate light and shadow, bend fate to their advantage, and move with the quiet inevitability of the moon itself.

Level 1 - Bonus Proficiencies

You gain proficiency in the Stealth skill and with the disguise kit.

Level 1 - Lunar Cycles

The moon's power flows through you in an ever-shifting cycle beyond your control. The Lunar Cycle has four phases, numbered 1 through 4. At the start of a campaign, or whenever the cycle is lost (such as through planar travel), the GM rolls a d4 to determine the current phase. The phase then advances by 1 at dawn each day, cycling from 4 back to 1.

You gain a benefit based on the current phase:

Moon Phase Effects Chart

Phase	Effect
New	You gain advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks. While in dim light or darkness, you can take the Hide action as a bonus action. You ignore disadvantage on Wisdom (Perception) checks imposed by dim light.
Waxing	Once per turn when you deal damage with a spell, you can add your Wisdom modifier to one damage roll. When you roll radiant damage for a spell, you can reroll a number of damage dice up to your Wisdom modifier (minimum 1). You must use the new rolls.
Full	You gain darkvision out to 60 feet, or your darkvision increases by 60 feet. You can see invisible creatures within 10 feet. Advantage on Wisdom (Perception) and Wisdom (Insight) checks.
Waning	When a creature you can see within 30 feet makes an attack roll, you can use your reaction to subtract your Wisdom modifier from the roll. If the attack misses, the creature takes psychic damage equal to your Wisdom modifier. You can use this ability a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum of 1) per long rest.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: Tidal Pressure

You channel the moon's unseen pull to subtly shift the battlefield. As an action, you present your holy symbol and choose creatures within 30 feet up to your Wisdom modifier. Each target must make a Strength saving throw. On a failure, you move the creature up to 15 feet in any direction (including upward, though it falls if unsupported) and knock it prone. On a success, you move it up to 5 feet and it is not knocked prone. Until the end of your next turn, the area within 30 feet of you is difficult terrain for hostile creatures.

Level 6 - Shadowdancing

You slip through shadow like drifting moonlight. While in dim light or darkness, you can use a bonus action to teleport up to 30 feet to an unoccupied space you can see that is also in dim light or darkness. You can use this feature a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum 1), regaining all uses on a long rest. After teleporting, you have advantage on the first attack roll or spell attack you make before the end of the turn.

Level 8 - Tidal Strike

Once on each of your turns when you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can deal an extra 1d8 cold damage. At 14th level, the extra damage increases to 2d8.

Level 17 - Predictable Patterns

You embody the rare convergence of all lunar phases. As an action, you assume your Eclipse form for 1 minute. During this time, you gain all four benefits on the Moon Phase Effects Chart simultaneously. You also gain a fly speed of 30 feet.

Repose Domain

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

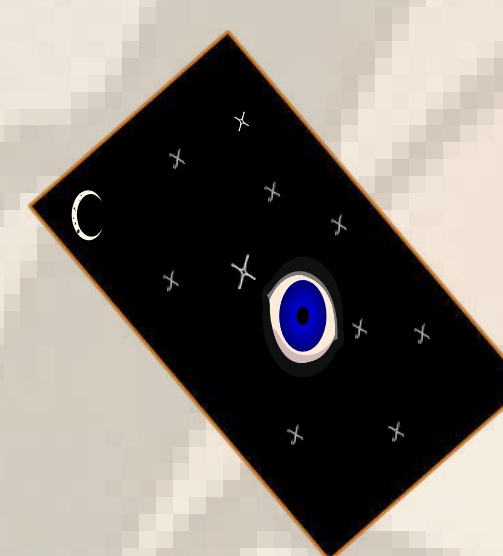

Clerics of the Repose Domain serve deities who embody rest, stillness, and the sacred boundary between life and death. To them, repose is not merely sleep, but a divine state, an end to suffering, a quieting of turmoil, and the natural conclusion of all mortal things. These clerics are guardians of peaceful passing and wardens against needless unrest, soothing the living while guiding the dying toward their final rest. Whether easing pain, stilling violence, or ensuring that the dead remain undisturbed, they carry a solemn purpose: to bring calm where there is chaos, and silence where there is suffering.

Level 1 - Bonus Proficiencies

When you choose this domain at 1st level, you gain proficiency in Insight and Medicine if you don't already have them.

Level 1 - Tranquil Touch

Your touch channels divine repose. You can use your action to touch a creature and grant one of the following effects:

- Calm. The target has advantage on Wisdom saving throws until the start of your next turn.
- Slumber. The target must make a Wisdom Saving Throw against your spell save DC or fall prone and be incapacitated until the end of its next turn.
- Reassurance. The target regains hit points equal to 1d6 + your Wisdom modifier.

You can use this ability a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier per short or long rest. When you reach 5th level, you can target two creatures with Tranquil Touch. At 11th level, you can target three creatures.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: Peaceful Dominion

You can use your Channel Divinity to enforce absolute tranquility. As an action, up to three creatures of your choice within 30 feet of you must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or be affected by the overwhelming power of stillness. Creatures that fail their saving throw have their speed reduced to 0 until the end of their next turn and cannot take reactions.

Level 6 - Aura of Silence

Starting at 6th level, you emanate an aura of supernatural quiet, extending 10 feet from you in every direction. The aura moves with you and bends around corners. Creatures of your choice that start their turn in the aura must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or be silenced. While silenced in this way, a creature cannot speak, including verbal spell components, and has disadvantage on its next attack roll. At 18th level, the radius of the aura increases to 30 feet, and creatures affected by it have disadvantage on all attack rolls and saving throws until the start of your next turn.

Level 8 - Tranquil Strike

Beginning at 8th level, you can channel the calming power of your Tranquil Touch with precision. Whenever you take the Attack action or cast a spell that targets a single creature, you can use a bonus action to activate Tranquil Touch against that creature. The effect functions as normal, allowing you to impose calm, soothe, or restrain it accordingly.

Level 17 - Predictable Patterns

Starting at 17th level, your command over rest and peace reaches its peak. When a creature within 60 feet of you drops to 0 hit points, you can use your reaction to choose one effect:

- Peaceful Transition. The creature does not make a death saving throw; it dies peacefully and cannot be affected by Necromancy spells for 7 days.
- Lingering Calm. The creature immediately stabilizes, and you may grant all allies within 30 feet temporary hit points equal to your cleric level + your Wisdom modifier.
- Too Soon For You. You roll all of your available hit dice, expending them. The target immediately regains a number of hit points equal to the total rolled. You must have at least half of your maximum hit dice (rounded down) available to use this ability.

Once you use this feature, you cannot use it again until you finish a long rest.

Solar Domain

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

Clerics of the Solar Domain draw power from the eternal fire of the sun. They shine in the light, protecting allies and searing foes with radiant energy. Their very presence makes darkness recoil and their positioning under sunlight grants strength and protection.

Cleric Level	Spells Learned

3rd	Flame Blade, Solar Whip

Level 1 - Bonus Proficiencies

When you choose this domain at 1st level, you lose proficiency with medium armor as gained from the Cleric class. You retain medium armor proficiency granted by any other means. You retain light armor and shield proficiency. You gain proficiency in Perception or Insight, reflecting your attunement to the sun and the battlefield.

Level 1 - Solar Ward

The sun itself shields you, turning its energy into protective power. So long as you are wearing light or no armor, you have a protective ward equal to 2 + your cleric level + your Wisdom modifier. The ward absorbs damage before your hit points are affected. At the start of your turn, your ward recharges. If you are in direct sunlight, the ward returns to its maximum amount. When you are indoors, underground, or otherwise out of the sunlight, the ward restores half of its maximum capacity (rounded down).

Level 1 - Flare Reaction

When a creature hits you with an attack, you can use your reaction to release a flare of solar energy. The attacker takes radiant damage equal to your current Solar Ward + your Wisdom modifier. If the creature is within 5 feet of you, it must also succeed on a Strength saving throw against your Spell Save DC or be pushed 10 feet away.

At 8th level, the radiant damage increases to 2 x your current Solar Ward + your Wisdom modifier. At 17th level, creatures that fail their saving throw against your Flare Reaction are blinded until the end of their next turn.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: Solar Judgment

Starting at 2nd level, you can use your Channel Divinity to call down the sun's brilliance upon your foes. As an action, you present your holy symbol and choose a point you can see within 60 feet. Radiant light erupts in a 15-foot-radius, 30-foot-high cylinder centered on that point. Each creature of your choice in the area must make a Constitution saving throw, taking 2d10 radiant damage plus your cleric level on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one. A creature that fails the saving throw is also blinded until the end of its next turn. The area remains filled with bright light for up to 1 minute, and this light counts as sunlight. This effect requires concentration, as if concentrating on a spell, and ends early if your concentration is broken. The light persists without dealing additional damage.

The damage increases to 3d10 + your cleric level at 6th level and 4d10 + your cleric level at 18th level.

Level 6 - Solar Mantle

At 6th level, you can channel your Solar Ward into your allies, wrapping them in the sun's protective radiance. When a creature you can see within 30 feet is hit by an attack, you can use your reaction to reduce the damage by up to half your current Solar Ward (rounded down). The attacker then takes radiant damage equal to half your current Solar Ward + your Wisdom modifier. If the ally is in direct sunlight, they instead reduce the damage by up to the full amount of your current Solar Ward. The attacker then takes radiant damage equal to your full current Solar Ward + your Wisdom modifier. You must have at least 1 point remaining in your Solar Ward to use this feature.

You can use this feature a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum 1), and you regain all uses after a long rest.

Level 8 - Solar Strike

You add your Wisdom modifier to the damage of any cleric cantrip you cast. When you do, you can choose for the additional damage to be either the same type as the cantrip's normal damage or fire damage.

Level 17 - Avatar of the Sun

At 17th level, you become a living embodiment of solar radiance. As an action, you can transform for 1 minute. While transformed, you shed bright light in a 60-foot radius and dim light for an additional 60 feet, which counts as sunlight. You gain a flying speed of 30 feet and are immune to fire damage. At the start of each of your turns, your Solar Barrier fully regenerates. Finally, allies that start their turn within 15 feet of you gain temporary hit points equal to your cleric level.

Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a long rest.

SOLIDARITY DOMAIN

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

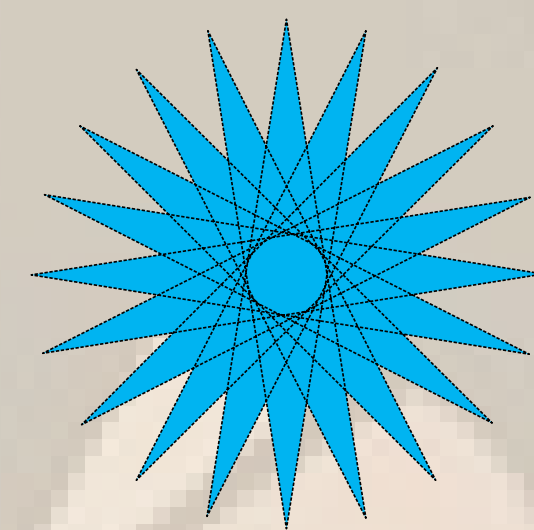

Clerics of the Solidarity Domain draw their divine power from unity. They bind allies together with invisible threads of divine will, granting small boons simply for acting in concert. Over time, these bonds grow into powerful surges of coordinated might, rewarding creativity, teamwork, and clever timing.

Level 1 - Bonus Proficiencies

You gain proficiency with martial weapons and heavy armor.

Level 1 - Web of Solidarity

As an action, you weave a divine network, or web, connecting up to six willing creatures you can see within 30 feet of you (including yourself). The web lasts for 1 minute or until you are incapacitated. If any of the chosen creatures moves more than 120 feet from you, the web ends. Once you use this feature, you can’t use it again until you finish a long rest, unless you expend a spell slot of 1st level or higher to use it again.

While bound by this web, each chosen creature gains a +1 bonus to saving throws. Between the end of your turn and the start of your next, the web silently records which of the following categories of team synergy occur at least once among connected creatures:

- Recovery. A spell is cast or an ability is used that restores hit points or provides temporary hit points, including spells with additional effects, such as damage
- Strike. A weapon attack hits
- Spell. A spell is cast that does not restore hit points or provide temporary hit points (including cantrips)
- Skill. One of the following actions are taken: Dash, Disengage, Hide, Help, or an ability check
- Utility. The use of an item or interaction with the environment. Includes magical items that would replicate spells or magical abilities, such as restoring hit points.

Each unique category recorded generates 1 Convergence Point at the start of your next turn (maximum of 4 per round). A single connected creature may only trigger one category per round. For example, a rogue that uses the Hide action as a bonus action before making a successful weapon attack would trigger either Skill or Strike, but not both.

On your turn, you may spend any Convergence Points to add a bonus equal to the number of points accumulated to a single attack roll or saving throw you make. Any unused Convergence Points disappear at the end of your turn.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: True Unity

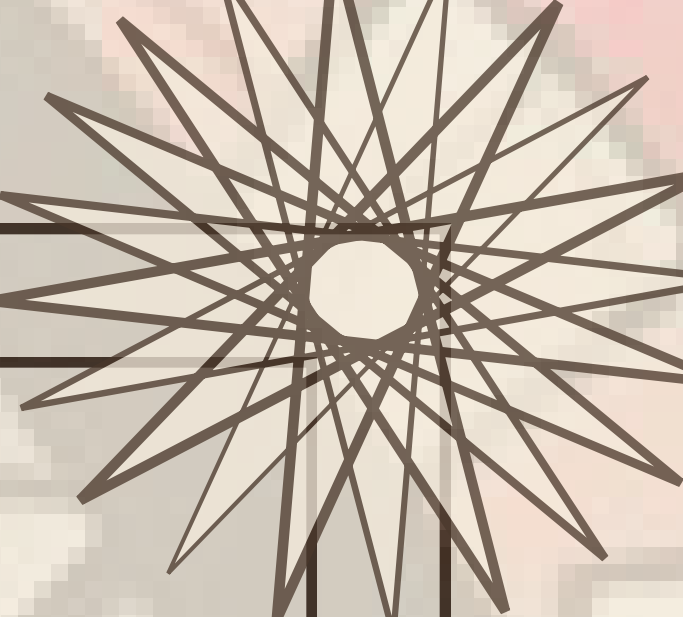

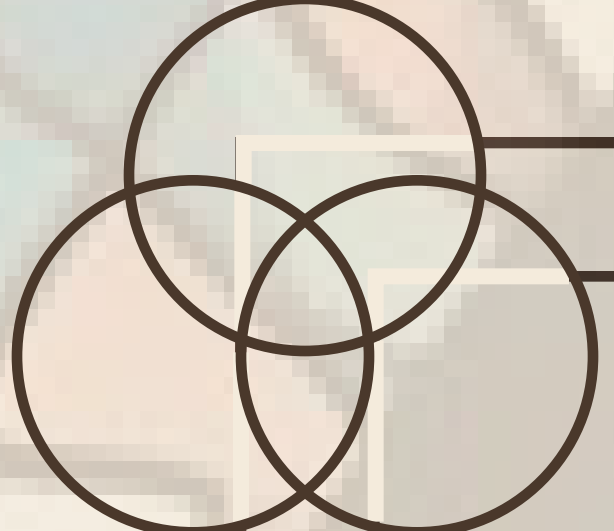

Starting at 2nd level, you can use your Channel Divinity to unleash the combined efforts of your allies. As an action, you present your holy symbol and expend any number of Convergence Points you currently have. Choose one of the following effects. The strength of the effect depends on the number of Convergence Points spent.

- Healing Wave. A number of creatures of your choice within your Web of Solidarity equal to the Convergence Points spent regain hit points equal to 1d8 + your Wisdom modifier.
- Empowered Strike. A number of creatures of your choice within your Web of Solidarity equal to the Convergence Points spent gain advantage on their next attack roll made before the start of your next turn.
- Protective Bond. A number of creatures of your choice within your Web of Solidarity equal to the Convergence Points spent gain a +2 bonus to AC until the start of your next turn.

Level 6 - Shared Positioning

While your Web of Solidarity is active, bound creatures can reposition through the network. When a bound creature you can see moves on its turn, you can use your reaction to allow another bound creature within 30 feet of you to move up to half its speed without provoking opportunity attacks.

You can use this reaction a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum of once), and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

SOLIDARITY DOMAIN CTD.

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

Level 8 - Solidarity Strike

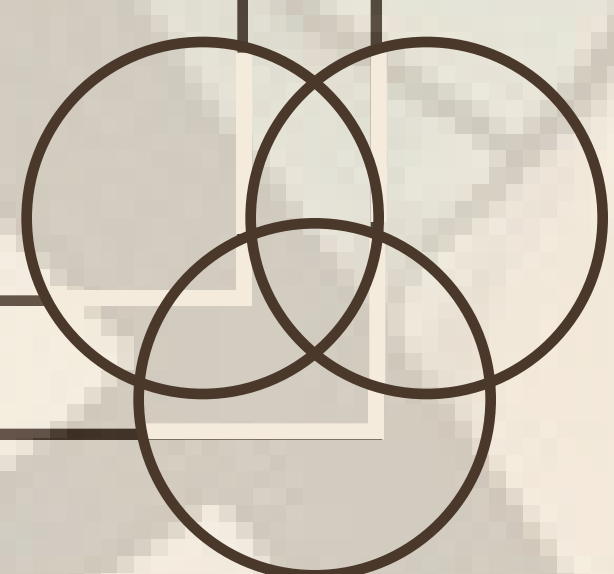

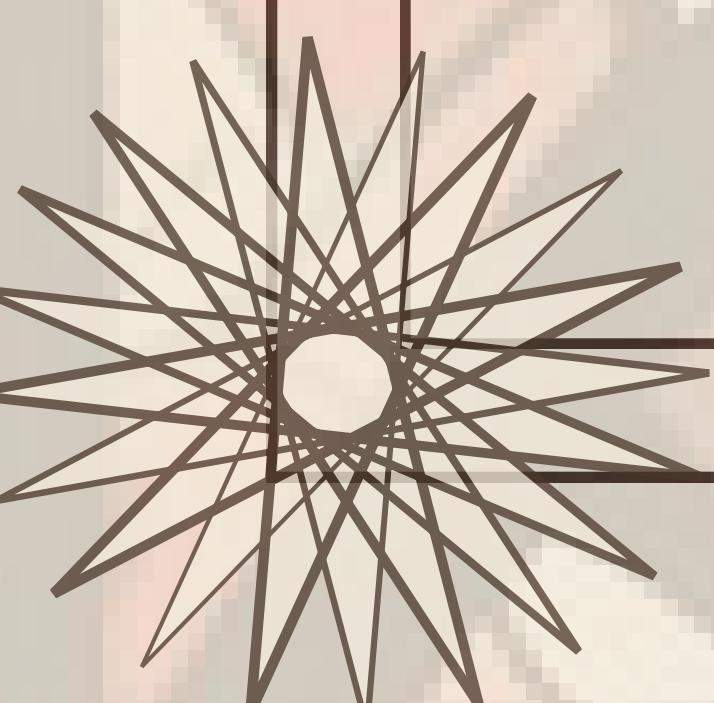

You gain the ability to channel divine power through the coordinated strikes of your allies. Once per round, when a creature connected by your Web of Solidarity hits with a weapon attack, you can cause that attack to deal an extra 1d8 radiant damage. If you have 2 or more Convergence Points when you use this feature, the extra damage increases to 2d8. Those Convergence Points are not expended.

When you reach 14th level, the extra damage increases to 2d8 (or 3d8 if you have 2 or more Convergence Points).

Level 6 - Solidarity Strike

At 17th level, your Web of Solidarity becomes a perfect expression of unity. Convergence Points now carry over to your next turn if unspent, and your maximum Convergence Points is now equal to your Wisdom modifier. Additionally, when you use your Channel Divinity: Unified Surge, you can choose two different effects instead of one.

Finally, when a creature connected by your Web of Solidarity is hit by an attack from a creature within 5 feet of it, you can use your reaction to call for immediate reprisal. Choose up to two other connected creatures that can see the attacker. Each chosen creature can use its reaction to either make one weapon attack against the attacker, or cast a cantrip that targets only that creature.

Level 1 - Stormborne

Starting at 1st level, you can awaken the power of the storm within you. As a bonus action, you can enter Stormborne Mode, a state of heightened speed and elemental fury, for 1 minute. Lightning arcs across your body and wind swirls around your feet. While in this mode, you gain a flying speed of 40 feet and can move through difficult terrain without penalty. Once on each of your turns, when you hit a creature with a melee weapon attack, the attack deals an additional 1d6 lightning damage. Additionally, any creature of your choice that starts its turn within 5 feet of you while in Stormborne Mode takes 1d6 lightning damage. Stormborne Mode ends early if you are incapacitated. Once you use this feature, you cannot use it again until you finish a long rest.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: Storm Surge

Starting at 2nd level, you can use your Channel Divinity to unleash the fury of the storm. As an action, you present your holy symbol, calling forth a sudden burst of wind and lightning in a 15-foot radius around you. Each creature of your choice in that area must make a Strength saving throw. On a failed save, a creature takes 3d8 lightning damage and 1d8 thunder damage and is pushed 15 feet away from you. On a successful save, the creature takes half as much damage and isn't pushed.

Level 6 - Tempest Body

At 6th level, your Stormborne form grows stronger. While Stormborne Mode is active, your flying speed increases to 40 feet, you gain resistance to lightning and thunder damage, and your movement does not provoke opportunity attacks.

Additionally, at 6th level, you can expend a spell slot of 3rd level or higher to activate Stormborne Mode again, giving you additional uses beyond your once-per-long-rest base activation.

Level 8 - Storm Strike

At 8th level, you gain the ability to infuse your weapon strikes with storm energy. Once on each of your turns when you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can deal an extra 1d8 lightning damage to the target. When you are in Stormborne Mode, the target is also pushed up to 10 feet away from you. When you reach 14th level, the extra damage increases to 2d8.

Level 17 - Stormfront Incarnate

At 17th level, you become the living embodiment of storm and sky. Your mastery over wind, lightning, and thunder is absolute, and your presence reshapes the battlefield. You gain immunity to lightning and thunder damage. In addition, each of your weapon and spell attack rolls deal an extra 1d8 lightning or thunder damage (your choice for each attack). Finally, when you are hit by an attack, you can use your reaction to release a shockwave of divine energy. The attacker must make a Strength saving throw; on a failed save, the creature takes 3d8 thunder damage and is pushed 15 feet away, or half as much damage on a successful save. You can use this reaction a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum once), regaining all uses after a long rest.

Level 1 - Bonus Proficiencies

When you choose this domain at 1st level, you gain proficiency with martial weapons and heavy armor if you do not already have them.

Level 1 - Shackles of War

At 1st level, you can summon spectral chains to bind your enemies. When you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can attempt to grapple it as a bonus action without requiring a free hand. The target must succeed on a Strength (Athletics) or Dexterity (Acrobatics) check contested by your Strength (Athletics) check. On a successful grapple, the target's speed becomes 0 until the grapple ends. You can grapple a number of creatures equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum 1) using this feature per long rest. At 6th level, your Shackling Strike improves: you can target two creatures at once and your grappled targets have disadvantage on saving throws against effects you cast that target them. At 17th level, Shackling Strike can target three creatures, and your grapples last an additional round.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: War's Rally

Starting at 2nd level, you can use your Channel Divinity to bolster allies with battlefield cunning. As an action, you choose up to three allies within 30 feet. Each ally can, until the start of your next turn, either add a d4 to one weapon or spell attack roll, move up to 10 feet without provoking opportunity attacks when taking the Attack action, or add a d4 to a saving throw of their choice. You can use this feature a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier per short or long rest.

Level 6 - Battlefield Prowess

At 6th level, your control over combat expands. When you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can push or pull it up to 10 feet in any direction. Additionally, when an ally attacks a creature grappled by your Shackling Strike, you can use your reaction to allow them to make one extra weapon attack immediately. This creates cinematic synergy without stepping on core spell mechanics.

Level 8 - Crushing Blow

At 8th level, you gain the ability to channel divine energy into your weapon strikes. Once per turn, when you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can deal extra force damage equal to 1d10 plus your Wisdom modifier. If the target is grappled by your Shackling Strike, the extra damage is maximized. At 14th level, the extra damage increases to 2d10 plus your Wisdom modifier.

Level 17 - Master of War

At 17th level, you become a battlefield juggernaut, shaping every fight with precision and authority. Your Shackling Strike can target up to three creatures at once, and creatures grappled by you have disadvantage on attack rolls against anyone other than you, maintaining control of the battlefield. Whenever an ally within 30 feet hits a creature grappled or restrained by your Shackling Strike, they may reroll any damage dice that show less than the average result for that die and must use the new roll. This allows your allies to maximize damage while keeping it within balanced limits. At the start of each of your turns, all allies within 30 feet gain temporary hit points equal to your Wisdom modifier, reflecting your commanding presence inspiring and protecting them.
