

CLERIC

Clerics in Pliara are not bound by simple notions of good or evil, but serve as living conduits between the mortal world and the vast forces embodied by the pantheon. Each deity represents a fundamental aspect of existence, and a cleric’s role is to interpret and enact that influence in the world, not merely obey it. Where a common priest offers devotion, a cleric offers transformation, drawing divine magic not as a reward for righteousness but as a reflection of their alignment with a god’s domain. Clerics are more apt to devote themselves to these domains and beliefs than to a single deity, with many worshiping more than one. Whether bringing life, destruction, peace, or endings, clerics are shaped by the powers they channel, and in turn shape the world according to truths far older and more complex than morality alone.

CLERIC CLASS FEATURES

Spellcasting

As a conduit for divine power, you can cast cleric spells.

Cantrips

At 1st level, you know three cantrips of your choice from the cleric spell list. You learn additional cleric cantrips of your choice at higher levels, as shown in the Cantrips Known column of the Cleric table.

Spell Slots

The Cleric table shows how many spell slots you have to cast your cleric spells of 1st level and higher. To cast one of these spells, you must expend a slot of the spell's level or higher. You regain all expended spell slots when you finish a long rest.

You prepare the list of cleric spells that are available for you to cast, choosing from the cleric spell list. When you do so, choose a number of cleric spells equal to your Wisdom modifier + your cleric level (minimum of one spell). The spells must be of a level for which you have spell slots.

For example, if you are a 3rd-level cleric, you have four 1st-level and two 2nd-level spell slots. With a Wisdom of 16, your list of prepared spells can include six spells of 1st or 2nd level, in any combination. If you prepare the 1st-level spell Cure Wounds, you can cast it using a 1st-level or 2nd-level slot. Casting the spell doesn't remove it from your list of prepared spells.

You can change your list of prepared spells when you finish a long rest. Preparing a new list of cleric spells requires time spent in prayer and meditation: at least 1 minute per spell level for each spell on your list.

Spellcasting Ability

Wisdom is your spellcasting ability for your cleric spells. The power of your spells comes from your devotion to your deity. You use your Wisdom whenever a cleric spell refers to your spellcasting ability. In addition, you use your Wisdom modifier when setting the saving throw DC for a cleric spell you cast and when making an attack roll with one.

Spell save DC = 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Wisdom modifier

Spell attack modifier = your proficiency bonus + your Wisdom modifier

Ritual Casting

You can cast a cleric spell as a ritual if that spell has the ritual tag and you have the spell prepared.

Spellcasting Focus

You can use a holy symbol as a spellcasting focus for your cleric spells.

Domain Spells

Each domain has a list of spells-its domain spells that you gain at the cleric levels noted in the domain description. Once you gain a domain spell, you always have it prepared, and it doesn't count against the number of spells you can prepare each day.

If you have a domain spell that doesn't appear on the cleric spell list, the spell is nonetheless a cleric spell for you.

Channel Divinity

At 2nd level, you gain the ability to channel divine energy directly from your deity, using that energy to fuel magical effects. You start with two such effects: Turn Undead and an effect determined by your domain. Some domains grant you additional effects as you advance in levels, as noted in the domain description.

When you use your Channel Divinity, you choose which effect to create. You must then finish a short or long rest to use your Channel Divinity again. Some Channel Divinity effects require saving throws. When you use such an effect from this class, the DC equals your cleric spell save DC. Beginning at 6th level, you can use your Channel Divinity twice between rests, and beginning at 18th level, you can use it three times between rests. When you finish a short or long rest, you regain your expended uses.

Channel Divinity: Turn Undead

As an action, you present your holy symbol and speak a prayer censuring the undead. Each undead that can see or hear you within 30 feet of you must make a Wisdom saving throw. If the creature fails its saving throw, it is turned for 1 minute or until it takes any damage.

A turned creature must spend its turns trying to move as far away from you as it can, and it can't willingly move to a space within 30 feet of you. It also can't take reactions. For its action, it can use only the Dash action or try to escape from an effect that prevents it from moving. If there's nowhere to move, the creature can use the Dodge action.

CLERIC CLASS FEATURES

Ability Score Improvement

When you reach 4th level, and again at 8th, 12th, 16th, and 19th level, you can increase one ability score of your choice by 2, or you can increase two ability scores of your choice by 1. As normal, you can't increase an ability score above 20 using this feature.

Destroy Undead

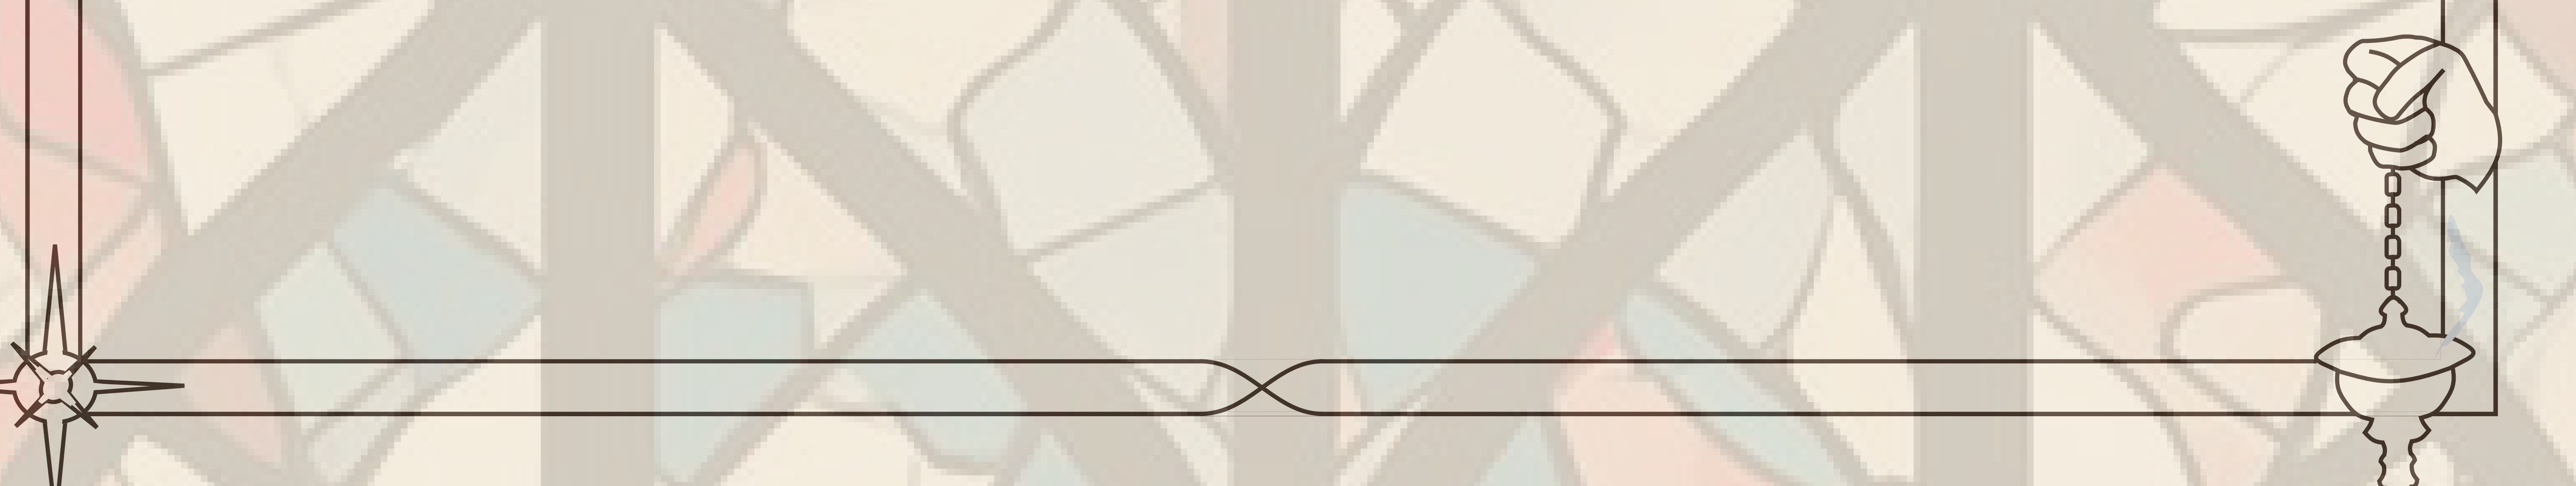

Starting at 5th level, when an undead fails its saving throw against your Turn Undead feature, the creature is instantly destroyed if its challenge rating is at or below a certain threshold, as shown in the Cleric table above.

Divine Intervention

Beginning at 10th level, you can call on your deity to intervene on your behalf when your need is great.

Imploring your deity's aid requires you to use your action. Describe the assistance you seek, and roll percentile dice. If you roll a number equal to or lower than your cleric level, your deity intervenes. The DM chooses the nature of the intervention; the effect of any cleric spell or cleric domain spell would be appropriate. If your deity intervenes, you can't use this feature again for 7 days. Otherwise, you can use it again after you finish a long rest.

At 20th level, your call for intervention succeeds automatically, no roll required.

Arcana Domain

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

Clerics of the Arcana Domain serve gods of pure magical law, spellcraft, and the fundamental structure of reality. To Minnh, Raisia, and Merros, magic is not merely power. It is syntax, axiom, and truth. Arcana clerics act as scholars and wardens of the Weave’s intent, ensuring magic is understood, preserved, and not abused. Some Arcana clerics are serene archivists. Others are battle-casters who unravel enemy spells mid-combat. All share a reverence for magic as a sacred force older than gods themselves.

Level 1 - Arcane Initiate

You gain proficiency in the Arcana skill. If you already have proficiency, you may choose another Intelligence or Wisdom skill instead.

Level 1 - Spellbreaker Knowledge

You learn two cantrips of your choice from the wizard spell list. They count as cleric cantrips for you.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: Arcane Alterations

As an action, you can use your Channel Divinity to channel divine insight into your spellcasting. Upon using this ability, choose two metamagic abilities from the sorcerer metamagic list. For 1 minute, you gain access to these metamagics, as well as a number of sorcery points equal to half your cleric level (rounded down). For the duration, you can spend these points to apply metamagic options of your choice to spells you cast, as if you were a sorcerer. All metamagic rules that would apply to sorcerers also apply to you.

Level 6 - Arcane Protection

At 6th level, your understanding of magic allows you to resist its effects more effectively. You gain a +2 bonus on saving throws against spells and other magical effects. In addition, when you or an ally within 10 feet of you is targeted by a spell that requires a saving throw, you can use your reaction to grant advantage on that saving throw. You can use this reaction a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum of once). You regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

Level 8 - Potent Spellcasting

Your divine insight allows you to channel arcane energy through even the simplest spells. When you cast a cleric cantrip, you add your Wisdom modifier to its damage, reflecting the precision of your magical knowledge.

Level 17 - Master of Magic

At 17th level, your divine understanding of arcane forces allows you to unravel and redirect magic itself.

When a creature you can see targets you with a spell that requires an attack roll, you can use your reaction to attempt to reflect the spell back at its caster. Make an Intelligence (Arcana) check as part of the same reaction. The DC equals 12 + the spell’s level. On a success, the spell is reflected back at the original caster, using your cleric spell attack modifier for the attack roll. On a failure, the spell affects you as normal. Once you successfully reflect a spell, you can’t do so again until you finish a long rest.

In addition, you gain limited mastery over arcane spellcraft. Choose one wizard spell of 3rd level or lower. The chosen spell counts as a cleric spell for you and is always prepared. You can cast it once without expending a spell slot, and you regain the ability to do so when you finish a long rest.

Arts Domain

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

Gods of the Arts preside over creativity, beauty, expression, and the shaping of meaning through form. Their clerics are painters, sculptors, musicians, storytellers, and performers whose faith is expressed through creation rather than dogma. To them, art is sacred... not because it is perfect, but because it is created.

Domain Spells

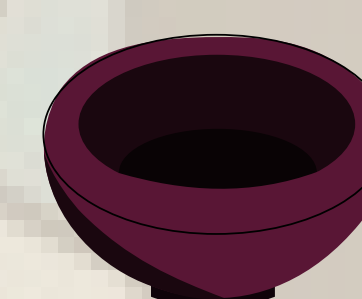

Arts Domain Spells List
Cleric Level	Spells Learned
1st	Creative Surge, Heroism
3rd	Battlefield Fresco, Glass Storm
5th	Hypnotic Pattern, Major Image
7th	Arcane Eye, Chromatic Crescendo
9th	Creation, Living Canvas

Commanding Deities

Veyora

Myrrakai

Level 1 - Flourishing Act

You casually add dramatic flair to your actions as often as possible. Once during your turn, you can add a 1d4 to one attack roll, saving throw, or Charisma skill check of your choice. You can use this feature a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier per short rest.

Level 1 - Blessed Medium

Choose one artistic medium: Painter's Supplies, Sculptor's Tools, Entertainer's Kit, Dancer's Kit, or one musical instrument of your choice. You gain proficiency in the chosen tool if you do not already have it. Veyora, Myrrakai, or both watch over your creations. Any art you craft in physical format can never be destroyed by non-magical means.

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: Masterpiece

At 2nd level, you can use your Channel Divinity to infuse your art with divine power, turning any act of creativity into a breathtaking display that captivates and inspires. As an action, you can perform a Masterpiece in any artistic medium you are proficient with, such as painting, sculpture, music, dance, or grand performance. The form of your Masterpiece is up to you. It may be a painting that comes alive, a sculpture that seems to move, a song that swirls through the air, or a dance that bends the light. When you do so, you create a living, ephemeral work of art in a 10-foot radius centered on you. Choose up to five creatures of your choice within the area. Each creature must make a Wisdom saving throw. On a failed save, the creature becomes mesmerized for 1 minute. While mesmerized, it cannot willingly move more than 10 feet away from the display and has disadvantage on attack rolls. At the start of each of its turns, the creature can repeat the saving throw to end the effect.

On subsequent turns, you can use a bonus action to cause any creatures captivated by your masterpiece to suffer mentally and emotionally as waves of inadequacy wash over them. Each creature mesmerized in this way takes 4d4 psychic damage and is no longer mesmerized.

On a successful save, a creature is still impressed, granting advantage on Charisma (Persuasion, Performance, or Deception) checks directed at it for 1 minute. After 1 hour, any physical trace of the Masterpiece (such as a painting) dissipates.

Level 6 - Divine Improv

When you cast a cleric spell of 1st level or higher, you may alter its expression in a moment of inspired devotion. Choose one of the options below to apply to the spell as you cast it. You may choose from the following options:

- If the spell deals damage, you may change its damage type to radiant, thunder, or necrotic.
- Increase the spell's range by 10 feet.
- Choose one creature affected by the spell. That creature gains temporary hit points equal to your Wisdom modifier.

You can use this feature a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum of once), and you regain all expended uses when you finish a long rest.

Level 8 - Potent Spellcasting

Your divine insight allows you to channel arcane energy through even the simplest spells. When you cast a cleric cantrip, you add your Wisdom modifier to its damage, reflecting the precision of your magical knowledge.

Level 17 - Living Masterwork

Your divine artistry transcends mortal limits. When you use your Channel Divinity: Masterpiece, the radius increases to 20 feet, and creatures that fail their saving throw are charmed and incapacitated until the end of their next turn. Additionally, when a creature fails its saving throw against Masterpiece, you may immediately force it to take the psychic damage effect (no bonus action required).

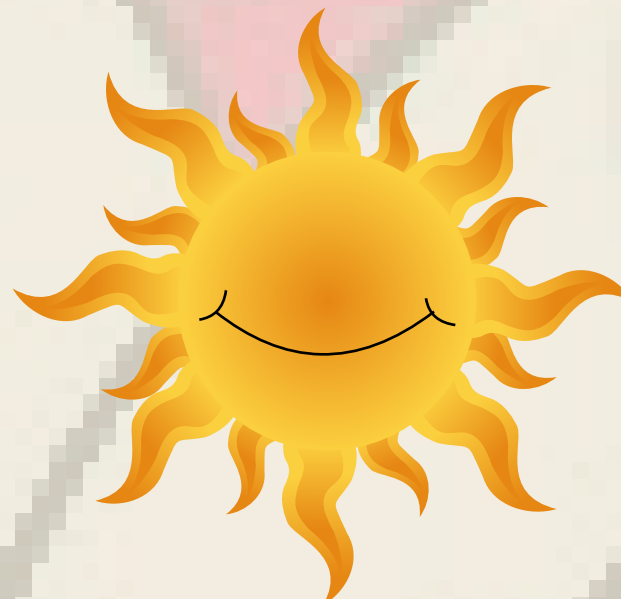

Chaos Domain

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

Clerics of the Chaos Domain embody the unpredictable forces that fracture reality and defy expectation. Where others impose order, these clerics embrace instability, allowing divine power to surge in erratic and dangerous ways. Their magic twists fate, distorts the battlefield, and reshapes outcomes in ways even they cannot fully control.

Level 1 - Domain Spells

Your connection to chaos prevents the formation of a fixed domain spell list for those that embody chaos. Instead, you draw from unpredictable sources of magic. Whenever you gain domain spells from your cleric class, you determine them randomly using the rules below. Each time you gain domain spells (1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th, and 9th level Cleric) you generate each spell individually by rolling on the following tables. For each domain spell, roll a d6 on the Spell Source table. This will determine which class's spell list you will choose from. Then, roll a d8 on the School of Magic table. This will determine which school of magic your chosen spell will come from. Once both have been rolled, choose a spell of the appropriate level from the indicated class's spell list that belongs to the rolled school of magic. The spell must be of a level for which you gain domain spells.

Chaos Domain Spells List
Cleric Level	Spell Level	Spell Learned
1st	1st
3rd	2nd
5th	3rd
7th	4th
9th	5th

Spell Source Table
Roll	Spell List
1	Bard
2	Cleric
3	Druid
4	Reader
5	Sorcerer
6	Wizard

School of Magic Table
Roll	Spell List
1	Abjuration
2	Conjuration
3	Divination
4	Enchantment
5	Evocation
6	Illusion
7	Necromancy
8	Transmutation

If no spell of the chosen level exists for the rolled combination, reroll the School of Magic die. If you are unable to determine a valid spell after re-rolling, you may choose any spell of the appropriate level from the rolled class's spell list. As Domain spells, the chosen spells count as Cleric spells for you, are always prepared, and don't count against the number of spells you can prepare each day.

Level 1 - Blessing of Chaos

Starting at 1st level, chaotic energy lashes out from your spellcasting. Once on each of your turns, when you cast a cleric spell of 1st level or higher, you can roll a d12 and apply the corresponding effect from the Blessing of Chaos table. If an effect requires a saving throw, it uses your cleric spell save DC.

Blessing of Chaos Table
Roll	Spell List
1	Backlash. You take 1d4 Force damage.
2	Twist of Luck. You have advantage on the next attack roll, ability check, or saving throw you make before the end of your next turn.
3	Spell Warp. You can change the target of the triggering spell to another valid target within range. If you do, reroll any attack rolls or saving throws associated with the spell.
4	Chaotic Pulse. One creature you can see within 30 feet of you takes force damage equal to 1d8 + the level of the triggering spell.
5	Flux Healing. You or one creature you can see within 30 feet regains hit points equal to 1d8 + your Wisdom modifier.
6	Unstable Ground. The ground in a 10-foot-radius sphere centered on a point you can see within 30 feet becomes difficult terrain until the start of your next turn.
7	Erratic Push. One creature you can see within 30 feet must succeed on a Strength saving throw or be pushed up to 10 feet in a random direction.
8	Chaotic Shield. You or one creature you can see within 30 feet gains temporary hit points equal to 1d6 + your cleric level.
9	Wild Surge. Roll twice on this table, ignoring additional rolls of 9.
10	Disorienting Flash. One creature you can see within 30 feet has disadvantage on the next attack roll or saving throw it makes before the end of its next turn.
11	Reality Slip. You teleport up to 15 feet to an unoccupied space you can see.
12	Surge of Potential. The next time you deal damage or restore hit points before the end of your next turn, add 1d8 to the roll.

Chaos Domain, ctd.

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

Level 2 - Channel Divinity: Unleash Chaos

Starting at 2nd level, you can use your Channel Divinity to release chaotic divine energy. As an action, you present your holy symbol and choose one of the following effects:

- Unstable Blessing: Choose up to three creatures you can see within 30 feet of you. Each target regains hit points equal to 2d8 + your Wisdom modifier, and each must roll on the Blessing of Chaos table, applying the result to itself.
- Chaotic Burst: Each creature of your choice within 20 feet of you must make a Strength saving throw. On a failed save, a creature takes force damage equal to 2d8 + your Wisdom modifier and is knocked prone. On a success, it takes half as much damage and isn't knocked prone.

Level 6 - Unstable Aura

At 6th level, you can radiate an aura of instability. As a bonus action, you create a 20-foot-radius aura centered on yourself that lasts for 1 minute. The aura moves with you. While the aura is active, the following effects apply:

- When a creature within the aura is hit by an attack, you can use your reaction to force the attacker to reroll the attack roll. The attacker must use the new roll.
- Once on each turn, when you or a creature of your choice within the aura fails an ability check or a saving throw, you can allow that creature to re-roll the die. The new result must be used.
- When a creature starts its turn within the aura, it can gain a fly speed of 40 feet until the end of that turn. If a creature uses this fly speed, it takes 1d6 force damage for every 10 feet it flies, to a maximum of 6d6 damage. This damage is taken at the end of its turn.

. You can use this feature once per long rest.

Level 8 - Controlled Surge

At 8th level, you gain the ability to channel destructive chaos through your spells. Once on each of your turns when you deal damage to a creature with a cleric spell, you can deal an extra 1d8 force damage to one of the targets. When you reach 14th level, the extra damage increases to 2d8

Level 8 - Chaotic Invocation

Also at 8th level, you can briefly bend chaos to your will. As a bonus action, you enter a heightened state of instability for 1 minute. During this time, whenever you roll on the Blessing of Chaos table, you can roll twice and choose which result to use. Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a long rest.

Level 17 - Incarnate

As an action, you emit a burst of chaotic energy. Each creature of your choice within 60 feet must roll on the Blessing of Chaos table once.

CLERIC SUB-CLASS

Clerics of the Creation Domain channel the forces of universal formation. They awaken matter, spark life, and shape reality itself, from growing seeds to animating planetary structures. Their power lies not in destruction, but in creation, growth, and the orchestration of life and matter.

Creation Domain Spells List
Cleric Level	Spells Learned
1st	Bless, Cure Wounds
3rd	Astral Seed, Shield of Faith
5th	Daylight, Orbital Shards
7th	Fabricate, Formsculpt
9th	Genesis Engine, Mass Cure Wounds

Awakened Objects Stats
Material	Armor Class	Hit Points	Str	Dex	Con	Wis	Int	Cha
Fragile (cloth, branches, leaves)	10	1d4 + Cleric level	2	18	10	3	3	1
Sturdy (wood, bone)	12	1d6 + Cleric level	4	14	10	3	3	1
Solid (stone, brick)	14	1d8 + Cleric level	4	14	10	3	3	1

You radiate the energy that forms stars, planets, and life itself, shaping a small living cosmos around you. As an action, you become the living embodiment of universal creation for 1 minute. Each time you cast a spell, awaken one additional object or plant within range. Healing spells you cast restore additional hit points equal to twice your cleric level. Allies of your choice within 30 feet gain +2 to AC, attack rolls, or saving throws while the effect lasts. Finally, you can use your awakened creations as conduits for your touch spells, allowing you to cast a spell with the range of touch while targeting a creature that is adjacent to one of your awakened creations.
